CEO of Divya Jyoti Valuers Foundation RVO

Sarita Singh is a seasoned executive and visionary leader currently serving as the CEO of Divya Jyoti Valuers Foundation RVO, where she has led the organization to new heights since assuming the role in September 2019. Her journey with Divya Jyoti Valuers Foundation began earlier as a Senior Executive, where her strategic acumen and dedication quickly propelled her to the helm.

With over two decades of rich professional experience, Sarita Singh has cultivated a diverse skill set across various sectors. Prior to her current role, she served as Senior Manager (HR) at Vishal Box Company, Noida, overseeing administrative functions and spearheading strategic initiatives. Her role included pivotal responsibilities such as recruitment, strategic planning consultation, and fostering strong management-employee relationships.

Before joining Vishal Box Company, Sarita Singh held significant positions including Manager (Accounts and Administration) at Mercantile Urban Co-operative Bank, Meerut, where she excelled in regulatory compliance, NPA management, and credit administration. Her meticulous approach ensured adherence to internal policies and regulatory frameworks, earning her recognition for her astute financial management skills.

Earlier in her career, Sarita Singh served as Manager (Accounts and Sales Department) at Spice Communication, Firozpur, Punjab, and Manager (Accounts and Administration) at Soodsons Financial Consultants, Firozpur, Punjab, where she honed her expertise in financial consultancy and administration.

Sarita Singh holds a Master's degree in Commerce from Himachal Pradesh University and a Bachelor's degree in Commerce from Punjab University, Chandigarh. She is also proficient in several technical skills including Tally ERP9, PowerPoint, and has completed a Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Applications (PGDCA) and CCC certification.

Beyond her corporate endeavours, Sarita Singh is an avid publisher in the company's e-journal, leveraging her passion for knowledge dissemination and contributing significantly to thought leadership in her field.

Sarita Singh is characterized by her strong leadership, strategic foresight, and commitment to excellence. Her ability to navigate complex challenges and inspire teams underscores her reputation as a transformative leader in both business and publishing domains.
